we find rhythm everywhere

Jim –
May say that I am highly flattered to to be only the second to sign your Burke. Indeed, a thrill beyond compare!
Good luck next year and don't take any wooden nickels.

Jim
I must say that sometimes we didn't agree but your still a great guy. Best of luck always.

rhythm is everywhere

in the sound of the bell

in the harmony of the ivory keys

in the patter of rain

in the echo of feet

a cadence of common things in the swing of the pendulum

in the staccatto of the typewriter

in the roll of drums

in the melody of the mind

ROSES ARE RED
VIOLETS ARE BLUE
IT'S SPRING
STUPID.
Good luck,
Dick

Studer

Acting as the student government, Student Council met once a month to discuss problems affecting the student body. Under the leadership of Barry Kayne, president; Jack Meyer, vice-president; Meg McGavran, secretary-treasurer; and Mr. Tipton, advisor, the council considered such business as the "lost and found" department, noon hour procedure, and the use of hall posters. The Homecoming Game and Homecoming Dance were sponsored by the organization in the fall. Members did all the planning and decorating for the evening, and the event was a big success.

The popcorn machine and apple machine, both bought by the council, were under the operation of council members. Popcorn was made and sold at football and basketball games as well as at other presentations at the school. The apple machine, too, proved to be a worthy investment.

Many students greeted the new year at the New Year's Eve Dance sponsored by the Student Council and held at the Jeffrey Mansion. Again, all arrangements were made by the council.

When Bexley's student government joined the Area Student Council this year, one of its members, Mary Jane Chittenden, was elected vice-president of the larger council. Bexley was proud to be so well represented in this larger organization.

Other activities of the council included ratifying three club constitutions, acting as host to five foreign exchange students for one day, and assisting in the debate tournament held at Bexley. In addition, the council lent support to the five mill levy bond issue.

Student Council offers the opportunity for representatives of the student body to work with the faculty in solving student-life situations. The students at Bexley feel fortunate in having such an organization.

Student Health Council

One of the school's most beneficial student organizations is the Student Health Council. Members are selected as freshmen, two girls and two boys, and continue in the council throughout high school.

Included in the council's activities this year were the distribution and collection of emergency cards for all students, promotion of the United Appeal campaign, and a Red Cross first aid class. In addition, movies on health problems were shown by the council every other Wednesday during the noon hour.

This year's officers were Dick Rush, president; Sally Morrow, vice-president; Lynn Elsass, secretary-treasurer; and Miss Love, advisor.

National Honor Society

On March 15, twenty-eight new members were inducted into the National Honor Society. Juniors in the upper sixth of their class and seniors in the upper third of their class are eligible for election.

Students are considered on the basis of leadership, scholarship, character, and service. Each person elected to the society has excelled in each of the four principles.

Mrs. Antoinette Barr, sponsor of the society, planned the ceremony in conjunction with the seniors who became members as juniors. Short speeches were made concerning character, scholarship, leadership, and service. The symbol and history of the society as well as a few words by Mrs. Barr and Mr. Jones were included in the ceremony.

Induction into the National Honor Society is considered to be the highest academic honor that can be received at Bexley.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll, the international journalistic society, each year recognizes those members of the BEXLEO and TORCH staffs who have shown interest in their work on the publications. To be eligible for membership in the society, one must be maintaining a current "B" average and be recommended by his advisor. At this year's Journalism Banquet twenty-nine from the two staffs were inducted into this honorary society.

Thespian Society

National Thespian Society was organized at Bexley in 1955 with its chief purpose being to encourage students showing ability and interest in dramatics. Its main function this year was the sponsoring of a dance following the Dramatics Club play, "See How They Run."

Officers for this year were Judy Franz, president; Linda Franz, vice-president; Peggy Gregg, secretary; Harriet Nalty, treasurer; and Mr. Eliopulos, advisor.

Y-Teens

Showing enthusiasm for service projects as well as all other activities, Y-Teen members enjoyed an extremely busy and successful year. The club helped in the planning and presentation of the Thanksgiving assembly. In connection with Hi-Y and Music Club, Y-Teens participated in Kinder Key caroling at Christmas time. Also during this season the club entertained the children from Hannah Neil Mission.

In March each Y-Teen member prepared one foreign dish for the "Around the World in Eighty Dishes" Dinner. At the Hi-Y versus Y-Teens basketball game, the boys showed their skill even with the handicap of boxing gloves and tied wrists. The annual Sadie Hawkins Dance, held on March 30, found Y-Teen members and their dates dressed to the occasion.

Concluding the year were the Mother's Day Tea at which the newly elected officers were installed and the Senior Farewell at which the seniors were honored. Y-Teens was under the excellent leadership of Sue Helmick, president; Marilyn Kurtz, vice-president; Sharon Taylor, secretary; Judy Franz, treasurer; and Miss Doersam, advisor.

French Club

To begin the year in a French atmosphere, chefs served "wine" and pastries while French Club members played French Bingo.

Slides of France and Europe were shown by both Miss Freitag and Dave Kotzin, and fifty-nine members attended the City-wide French Club Banquet.

Officers this year were Lorraine Weber, president; Mary Jane Chittenden, vice-president; Cheri Papier, secretary-treasurer; and Miss Freitag and Mr. Howell, advisors.

Spanish Club

Several programs of Spanish Club this year acquainted members with the customs of Spanish-speaking countries. A Chilean doctor spoke at one meeting, and slides of Mexico were shown at another. In March Dave Kotzin shared his trip to Europe with a joint meeting of Spanish Club and French Club.

This year's officers were Brian Michaelson, president; Rosanne Kanter, vice-president; Claire Baas, secretary; Steve Ault, treasurer; and Miss Bittner and Mr. L. Smith, advisors.

Latin Club

Trips to see Spartacus and a "traveling planetarium" provided the first programs for this year's Latin Club. Stop lights and street signs served as decoration for the club's January dance, "All Roads Lead to Rome." The Latin Clubs of Upper Arlington, North, and Bexley held a mock Olympic meet for which club members dressed as Romans and participated in various games.

Officers this year were Fahn Zelizer, president; Joel Ziskind, vice-president; Gail Gertner, secretary; Beverly Betz, treasurer; and Miss Wiley, advisor.

Book Club

Meeting once a month in the library, Book Club was led this year by Susan Lieberman, president; Fahn Zelizer, vice-president; Diane Levison, secretary; Kathy Julian, treasurer; and Mr. R. Z. Smith, advisor. The club had a book exchange in December to which members brought their own paper-back books to exchange for other members' books. In January Mrs. Antoinette Barr spoke to the group about her visit to Russia. Later in the year the club used posters to sponsor a campaign concerning the proper use of the library.

Art Club

Programs on flower arranging, modern jazz as an art, interior decorating, and ceramics provided interesting meetings for this year's Art Club. Led by Joan Dunavent, president; Sherry Simpson, vice-president; Margaret Huff, secretary; Mary Lynn McClure, treasurer; and Mr. Trivella, advisor, the club visited the Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts and several art shows.

The biggest event of the club was the annual Art Exhibit at which the coveted Gold Cup Award was awarded to one outstanding senior.

Music Club

Promotion of a better appreciation for music is one of the objectives of Music Club. Among other activities, a "singspiration" and Kinder Key caroling were held jointly with Y-Teens. The club also sponsored a dance, "Washington's Whirl," in honor of George Washington's birthday. The year was completed with the annual picnic with Dramatics Club.

Officers for this year were Paula Daines, president; Linda Franz, vice-president; Pam Mulbarger, secretary-treasurer; and Mr. Myers and Mr. Zimmerman, advisors.

Debate Club

In its second year Debate Club had a very busy schedule. The topic on which all high school debaters debated was federal aid to education. The team debated for the PTA at Montrose and the Kiwanis Club at the Desert Inn. In February Bexley was the host of a two-day tournament in which our debaters placed fifth in the district.

Leading the club this year were Mary Jane Chittenden, president; Ric Klass, vice-president; Betsy Brust and Susie Wolman, co-secretaries; Barbara Klages, treasurer; and Mr. Eliopulos, advisor.

Dramatics Club Officers: Ann Zimpher, Rozzy Siegel, Harriet Nalty, Missy Heffernan.

Dramatics Club

Production of the three-act play, "See How They Run," was one of the main projects of Dramatics Club this year. Playing the leads of the comedy were David Bloomfield and Linda Franz. Other activities of the club included attending a dress rehearsal at the Player's Club and sponsoring an open house after the operetta, "Annie Get Your Gun." The year was concluded with the annual Music Club-Dramatics Club picnic.

Dramatics Club was led this year by Rozzy Siegel, president; Harriet Nalty, vice-president; Ann Zimpfer, secretary; Melissa Heffernan, treasurer; and Mr. Eliopulos, advisor.

F.T.A.

Future Teachers of America again sponsored a most successful year. Programs which consisted of movies, speakers, and discussions depicted the various phases of teaching. Among the highlights of the year were a talk given by Dr. Jarvis, the annual Teachers' Tea, and the opportunity for members to participate in substitute teaching at the elementary and junior high schools.

Leading the club this year were Sondra Schwartz, president; Alisann Morgan, vice-president; Linda Franz, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Sitterley, advisor.

Science Club

This year the Bexley High School Science Club became the Bexley Chapter of Future Scientists of America. Plans were made to enter two projects in the annual Science Fair held on March 31 at St. John's Arena. Six hundred people from other high schools also participated in the event.

Dave Allison, president; Jeff Fischer, vice-president; Dave Swedlow, treasurer; Ric Klass, sergeant-at-arms; and Mr. West were the leaders of the club this year.

Hi-Y

Hi-Y was again the very active boys' organization that it has been in former years. At Thanksgiving the club joined Y-Teens in gathering baskets of food for less fortunate families. During the Christmas season the two clubs combined again to take part in Kinder Key caroling. In addition to participating in various activities sponsored by the Y.M.C.A., the club also supported the annual basketball games—Hi-Y versus Faculty and Hi-Y versus Y-Teens.

Leading the club this year were Bill Thomas, president; Richard Dick; vice-president; Jeff McClelland, secretary-treasurer; and Mr. Tong, advisor.

Pep Club

Officially made a club this year, Pep Club had many more activities than in the past and had one of the highest attendance records of all the clubs. Included in the activities were the sponsoring of buses to away football and basketball games, the making of sport signs for the boys' lockers, the teaching of new cheers, and the promotion of school spirit.

This year's Pep Club was under the leadership of Mabel Gilbert, president; Carole Smoler, vice-president; Joyce Friedman, secretary; Kalitsa Tsitouris, activity chairman; and Miss Robson, advisor.

Choir

Our choir, under the direction of Mr. C. Robert Myers, again maintained its high standard of quality and performance.

On Parents' Night, the first performance of the busy year, parents of choir members attended a practice session and heard music in all stages of preparation, including one piece of sightreading.

After taking part in the Thanksgiving assembly, the choir had only a short time in which to prepare nine Christmas season performances. Included in these engagements were the Bexley Women's Club, the Columbus Country Club, and the elementary schools.

At the first of the new year, the choir participated in the district contest and received a first place rating. Then practice began for the group's biggest event of the year—the operetta. "Annie Get Your Gun" was presented to full houses on April 6 and 7. The great success of the operetta was reflected in the response of those who attended it.

Activities of the choir were brought to an end by a pop concert in May and participation in the June Baccalaureate. During the course of the year many Bexley residents had an opportunity to hear and enjoy the music of this year's choir. In addition, the Girls' and Boys' Ensembles provided music for several dances and club meetings.

Choir officers this year were Jack Wood, president; Joan Schlezinger, secretary-treasurer; and Paula Daines, social chairman.

Band

Another section of our music department is the high school band. Under the direction of Mr. W. W. Zimmerman our band provided music for many of this year's concerts and school functions.

The football season found the marching musicians busy with pre-game and half-time activities at the high school games. At the homecoming game Sam Bates, drum major, presented a life-size paper-mache lion to the band as a mascot. Later the band helped in the honoring the Veterans' Day by participating in the Veterans' Day Parade.

Adding to the festivities of the Christmas season, the band provided music at Bexley's Annual Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony and at the band-choir Christmas performance.

Playing entirely American music, the instrumental group delighted the student body at the band assembly in February. Soon after, many of the band members participated in the solo and small ensemble contest at Capital University.

On March 16 and 17 our band, joined by the junior high school band and several other groups, entertained at the Variety Show. Later in March our group returned the visit with a concert for the junior high student body.

May was a particularly busy month this year, for the band presented both the Annual Band Concert and a pop concert. Climaxing the year was a banquet given by the Band Parents in honor of the band members. They certainly deserved the honor.

This year's band officers were Sam Bates, president; Bill Barr, vice-president; and Nancy Fritsche, secretary-treasurer.

Once a month students found their TORCHES awaiting them in homerooms. Under the co-editorship of Peggy Gregg and Jack Meyer, each edition provided four pages of human interest and informative articles. Much work is needed to produce a monthly school paper, and this year's competent staff certainly maintained the high standards set by former staffs.

After stories and articles were written, they had to be fit into the columns and proofread. For each edition the printer received a first copy and returned three "galleys" to be corrected by the staff. After all corrections had been made, the paper was printed and distributed to the student subscribers.

Other positions on the staff included the page editors, Steve Ault, Fahn Zelizer, Rosanne Kanter, and Ron Solove; and the copy editor, Harriet Nalty. Much appreciation goes to the TORCH's excellent advisor, Mrs. Amos. Her time, cooperation, and experience were timely to the production of the paper.

Students at Bexley are certainly proud of both their TORCH and the people who are included in its staff. The quality of the TORCH has again been recognized this year by an All-American rating.

BEXLEO

Aware of the high yearbook standards set for us by former BEXLEO staffs, we, the staff of 1962, have tried to equal and if possible surpass these standards. As in other years we selected a theme which we felt could symbolize school life and be developed through quotations and pictures.

The major change in this year's book is the increased use of informal pictures. The staff felt that informal pictures of school activities give a better picture of student life.

To adequately express our thanks to our advisor, Mr. Howell, is not possible. He has devoted so much time and effort to the production of this book that we can only hope he realizes our appreciation.

This year's BEXLEO staff included Margaret Turner, editor; Mary Wulber, associate editor; Lorraine Weber, literary editor; Meg McGavran, senior section; Brian Michaelson, business manager; George Slater, advertising manager; Nancy Kahan, staff secretary and layout assistant; Joan Dunavent and Cheryl Simpson, art editors; and Nancy Calland, Richard Dick, Judy Franz, Linda Franz, Reesa Goldsmith, Barry Kayne, Karen Scheiderer, and Bill Thomas.

We enjoyed producing this book for you, the student body. You helped through your cooperation in the tax stamp drive and the subscription campaign; and it is our hope that as the years go by this book will serve as a remembrance of the wonderful 1961-1962 school year.

Football

Under Head Coach Ben Tenwalde, the 1961 Lions experienced a disappointing season, winning two games and losing eight.

After starting the season with a 12-8 victory over Logan, the Lions lost a heartbreaker to St. Charles, when the Cardinals scored the winning touchdown late in the fourth quarter after recovering a fumble which ended a long Bexley drive. The following week Bexley traveled to Circleville, where they lost a hard-fought game to the South-Central Ohio League champs 12-6. In the Lions' first CBL game, they were blanked by Grandview's Bobcats 14-0. Although outscoring Arlington 6-3 in the second half, Bexley lost to the future CBL champs 22-6. Whitehall's highly favored Rams came to Bexley the next week and left with a 20-6 victory over the Lions. At Worthington everything went wrong and a strong Cardinal team overpowered the Lions 36-0. Spirits were high for the Homecoming game the following week, and the home team rewarded the big crowd with a satisfying 28-8 victory over Mt. Vernon.

At the Annual Football Banquet on November 13, it was announced that Co-captain Jim Westwater had been named to the all-CBL first team as tackle. Chris Tsitouris, Calvin Hamrick, John Moriarty, and John Schmidt received Honorable Mention. The Fred Medors award, for the most valuable player on the team, went to Co-captain Chris Tsitouris, Lion fullback and linebacker.

Basketball

To open the season the Lions lost to Grove City 60-30 and to St. Charles a week later 41-24. CBL play brought six successive losses to Whitehall, Worthington, Mt. Vernon, Urbana, West, and Delaware. The Lions finally battled out a 52-50 win over Grandview.

Upper Arlington, the next opponent, was victorious 60-31. The next night, however, Bexley won over North High on a last second shot by Jim Hoyer.

Bexley's second round of CBL competition started with losses to Whitehall, Worthington, Mt. Vernon, and Urbana. The next week the Lions played their best game of the year, defeating Delaware 55-45. The season's last win was over Grandview 55-51.

Captain Calvin Hamrick was the only returning starter from last year's squad. The other starting positions were filled by juniors Jim Hoyer, Jeff Berlin, and Roger Williamson and sophomore Jeff Schmidt. Seniors John Moriarty and Rick Culbertson provided bench strength, especially in the rebounding department. Junior Joel Brandt contributed support in the back court.

Hoyer, the team's leading scorer and captain-elect for next year, was named to the all-CBL second team, while Captain Hamrick received Honorable Mention.

Swimming

Led by Coach Russ Owens and co-captains Jeff Paine and George Slater, Bexley's 1962 swimming team enjoyed a very successful season, winding up with a 9-2 record.

In the season's first meet the Lions defeated Worthington by a score of 55-30. Bexley's next opponent was Aquinas, which offered little resistance in losing 58-28. Bishop Hartley was the next victim, this time by a 60-26 verdict. Greenfield McClain was defeated 44-32, but in their next meet the Lions just squeezed out a 49-46 victory over Ashland. St. Charles was downed 55-31, and then Bexley polished off Greenfield McClain for the second time, 48-38. The Lions carried a seven game winning streak into the Academy meet, but had it broken by a 49-37 score.

Five new school records were established this season, two by Co-captain Jeff Paine. After breaking both the 400-yard (a new event this year) and the 200-yard freestyle record several times during the regular season, Paine broke them both for the last time in the Central District Meet. His times of 4:35.2 in the 400-yard, and 2:04.1 in the 200-yard enabled him to become the meet's only double winner, and receive the Outstanding Swimmer award. Bexley finished third in the meet, behind Upper Arlington and Academy. Barry Mellman broke the record for his specialty, the 100-yard breast stroke, several times during the season, the final time being a 1:08.3 which enabled him to finish fifth in the state meet. In the City Relays a new standard was set in the 200-yard medley relay by Mellman, sophomore Gary Olander, and juniors Jeff McClelland and Mark Paine when they had a time of 1:54.3. McClelland, Co-captain George Slater, sophomore Tom Leukart, and senior Scott McElroy set a 200-yard freestyle relay record of 1:40.3 in the state meet.

At the Winter Sports Banquet on March 12, Jeff McClelland and Mark Paine were named as Co-captains of the 1963 squad.

Wrestling

Despite the handicap brought about by losing Co-captain Dick Golden, who was seriously injured in a match against Hilliards, the grapplers compiled a five and seven record and enjoyed the sport's finest season in its five year history.

The matmen opened their season with impressive victories over Bishop Hartley and University. They then went to Pleasant View where they were edged out by Pleasant View, 15-24. The Lions came back by overpowering Mansfield Madison 25-20 and beating Watkins Memorial 41-10, but only to lose to a fine Franklin Heights team, 16-23. The fighting matmen then came home and shutout Ohio Blind 24-0. They suffered their biggest defeat by Hilliards. Although losing by only one point, 18-19, they lost Co-captain Golden for the entire season. In completing their season, tthe team was defeated in four out of their last five matches, with the lone victory being over Grandview, 24-19.

At the Winter Sports Banquet, the wrestlers received recognition for their outstanding achievements. Larry Lieberman became the first Bexley wrestler to enjoy an undefeated season, district runner-up, and winner of the Most Valuable Wrestler Award. Jerry Robins set the school record for the most pins in one season and Alan Glas had the fastest pin during the season. Coach Tenwalde is able to look forward to a very promising team next year with twelve returning lettermen.

Tennis

Coached by Mr. Weis, the tennis team has a promising outlook despite the graduation of lettermen last year. A wide schedule will be played with many schools in addition to the CBL.

Three returning lettermen form the nucleus of the team, which will consist of Captain Richard Dick at first singles; Mark Engelman, second singles; Jeff Schmidt, third singles; Dan Dick and Dave Frasch, first doubles; and Jeff Brandon and Joel Engelman or Irv Godofsky and Joel Slaven, second doubles.

Impressive victories over Newark, Delaware, and Academy have given the Lions a good start toward league supremacy.

Golf

Bexley's 1962 golf team, led by Captain Steve Miller, is expected to have excellent chances of winning both leagues in which it competes.

Miller and senior Reid Wasserstrom are the only returning lettermen from last year's squad, which placed high in the state tournament. The other two positions on the four man team are filled by sophomore Roger Gleckler and either sophomore Bob Peterson or sophomore Woody Woodworth.

The team participates in both the Central Buckeye League and the Saturday Morning Division of the Greater Columbus League.

Baseball

Bexley's 1962 baseball team has high hopes of winning the Central Buckeye League crown, after finishing second for three years in a row.

Coached by Curtis Tong and captained by Ron Clowson, the team is built around a nucleus of returning lettermen. These players are Clowson, first base; Calvin Hamrick, center field and pitcher; Chris Tsitouris, shortstop; Bob Hepps, catcher; Steve Rosenthal, second base; and Joel Brandt, a first team all-CBL pitcher last year. The best new prospects are seniors Jeff Smith and Rick Culbertson; juniors John Schmidt, Jeff McClelland, and Jim Hoyer; and sophomore Wally Wallace.

This year the Central Buckeye League is more balanced than it has ever been in recent years. According to Coach Tong, Bexley's chances of capturing the elusive championship are just as good as those of any other team. The biggest factor in the league race will probably be the weather, since most teams more or less rely on one or two pitchers. Postponements will put a strain on pitching staffs and will hurt any team involved.

Track

This year's track team, under Coach Owen and Assistant Coach Ridenour, has a promising outlook. Although there are only nine returning lettermen, fine performances are to be expected from many experienced underclassmen.

Trackmen for '62 opened their campaign with six impressive victories over Rosary, Grandview, Circleville, Hartley, Delaware and Reynoldsburg. Barry Kayne, Sam Bates, and Rick Mauger are standouts in the dash events, while Jim Westwater, Dick Curl, and Rick Harbold have been earning many points in the field events. Among other consistent scorers will be Dick Patton, Van Snider, and Bob Rosel.

Although the team is not contemplating a CBL championship, the fine leadership and hard work done by the squad should pay off with many victories over league members.

Certainly one of the most active clubs at Bexley is the Girls' Athletic Club. With every year the membership and number of activities increase.

The schedule of the year began with the "G.A.C. Roundup" rushing party to which the girls came dressed as Wild West characters.

"Winter Wonderland" was the theme of the dance sponsored by the club. Also in December was the orphan toy project supported along with Y-Teens.

One of the big events of every school year is the annual G.A.C. Banquet, and this year was no exception. The programs and decorations centered around the theme "Tee Off with G.A.C." During a candle-light service, this year's officers, Jean Schmidt, president; Dody Schwartz, vice-president; Cheri Papier, secretary; Barbara Rose, treasurer; and Marcia Ruhling, intramural manager, installed the newly elected officers. Miss Love and Miss Robson served as G.A.C. advisors.

Of the seventy-five girls who signed up for varsity hockey, thirty-three girls made the team. The "A" and "B" teams were coached by Miss Donna Robson and practice was held on Mondays and Wednesdays after school. Intramural games were played on Tuesday and Thursday.

The senior class won Hockey Night which was held on November 9. The seniors scored two points and held the juniors scoreless.

Basketball

Girls' basketball rules were modified this year to make the game faster and more competitive. Three dribbles, handing the ball, and putting the ball in play at the end line after a goal were included in the modifications.

The senior and freshman basketball teams were undefeated while the juniors lost four and the sophomores lost only one.

Class Night, hold on March 5, was won by the seniors who beat the juniors, 34-4. Jean Schmidt was crowned with a kiss by the varsity basketball captain, Calvin Hamrick.

Two more points for the seniors.

Along with the host of loyal friends, we echo the sentiment of our Alma Mater Song—

To Alma Mater, Bexley,
To thee our praise we bring;
To thee whose hallowed halls we tread,
Our toast to thee we sing.
Though friends and hopes may fade away,
Our Blue and White will live forever;
And as the seasons swiftly go,
Thy name and praise shall ring!

Jim,

There are many things that I would like to say but many of them would probably appear too trite to say now. About all I can say is that this year has been great and that you've helped to make it so. I do wish you all the best of luck that the years can hold in store for you.

Your South End Buddy,

Tom

Jim,
Is one of the funniest boys in the senior class. (& sometimes very loud) - All kidding aside - you are a real great boy & I wish you the best of luck in your future to do.

in our everyday lives

Jim,

It's really hard for me to sign your Beano because I don't know how to express in words how much your friendship has meant to me. I will never forget all the fun we've enjoyed together these past four years. You have helped me in many ways - especially with our mutual acquaintance. I know that I can always count on you and trust you - this is what I consider a true friend. You are really a great guy and someone who is bound to have a successful future in whatever he does. I can't believe that I won't be around Betley next year and when I think of all the things I'll miss you are right at the top. I'm always consider me as a close friend and if there is anything I can ever help you with (love problems) etc. be sure to let me know. I also hope to see you coming down to Miami quite often next year - thanks again for being such a good friend - may I say good luck ALWAYS and I mean it. Best of luck - always - you deserve it.

Much luck, love and laughs,
Cindy '62

P.S. Never forget good ole Betley and Miss what'd'ya'mecallit - good luck next year at O.S.U.
